

Good Governance – Constitution

Fairtrade encourages democratic, participatory and transparent producer organisations to facilitate the social and economic development of their members.

1

GENERAL INFORMATION: Gives a broad outline of the organisation, including its purpose, principles, location and area of work.

300 MEMBERS

2

OBJECTIVES OF THE ORGANISATION: Describes the general activities of the organisation and its business, including services to members, which are carried out in order to fulfil the organisation's purpose.

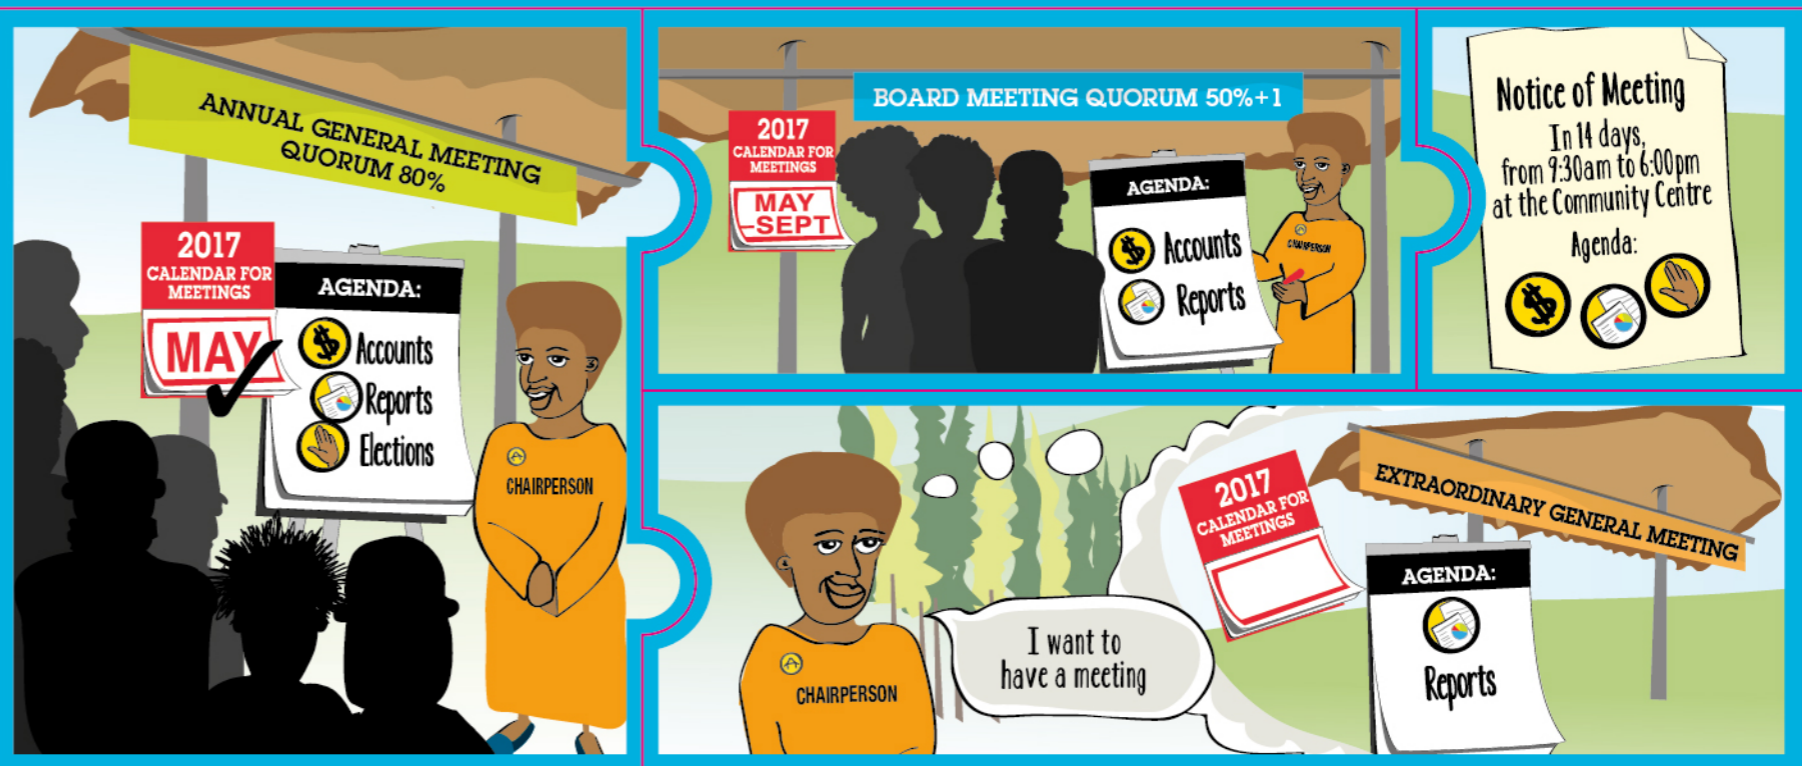

3

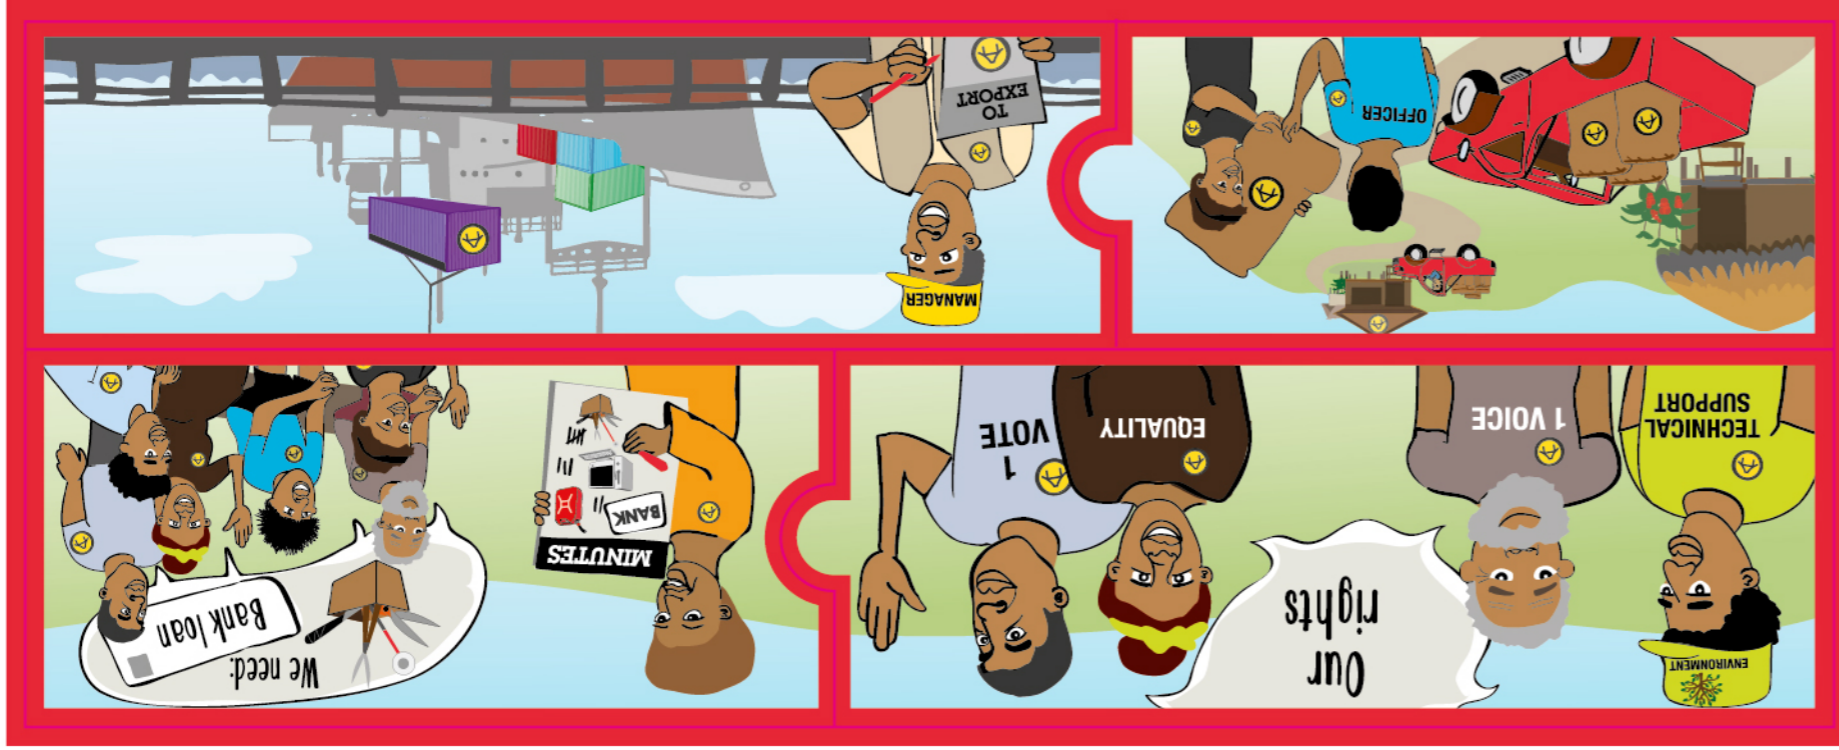

THE MEMBERSHIP: Describes who can be a member, how to become a member, and what the rights and responsibilities of members are.

4

MEETINGS: Describes how to prepare and hold meetings, including the notice period, the expected participants, and how often the meetings should occur.

ISLANDS

Dolis

Natamo

Nocuun

Silento

THE WONDERFUL ASSOCIATION OF SMALL GROWERS OF ISLANDS

4,000 MEMBERS

To support members to improve volumes and quality of their crops, and to sell these to international markets

CHAIRPERSON

I want to become a member

Who can join?

FEES $100

We don't use chemicals

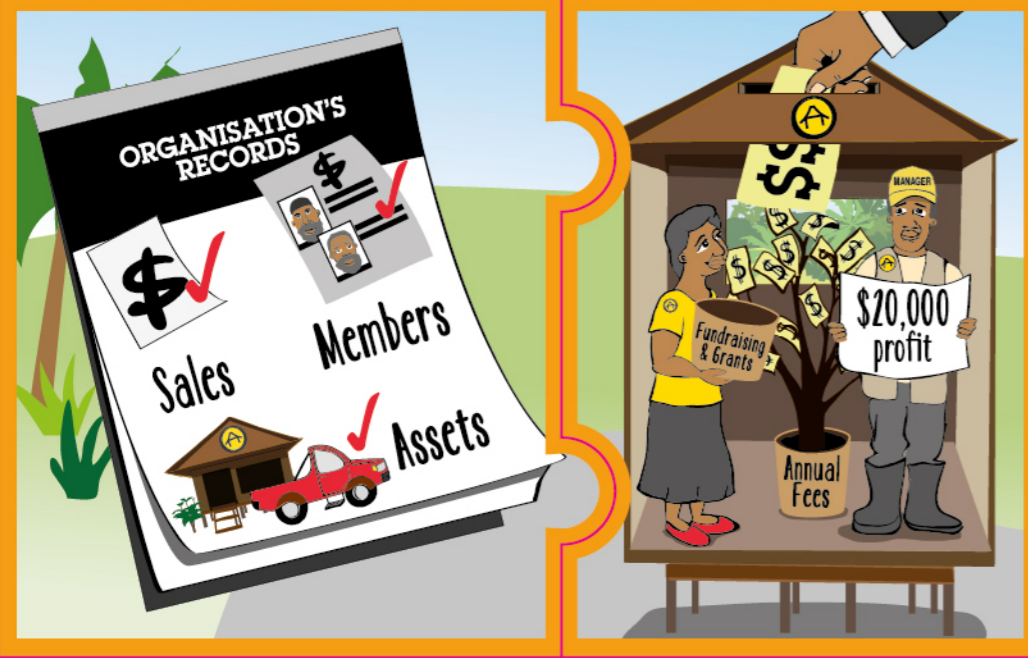

Yes

CONSTITUTION

I ♥ MY ORGANISATION

5

INCOME GENERATION AND ACCOUNTS: Describes how the organisation will make money and keep record of accounts, in order to be accountable and transparent.

6

GOVERNANCE BODIES: Describes who oversees and implements the organisation's activities, and how governance bodies will interact with each other.

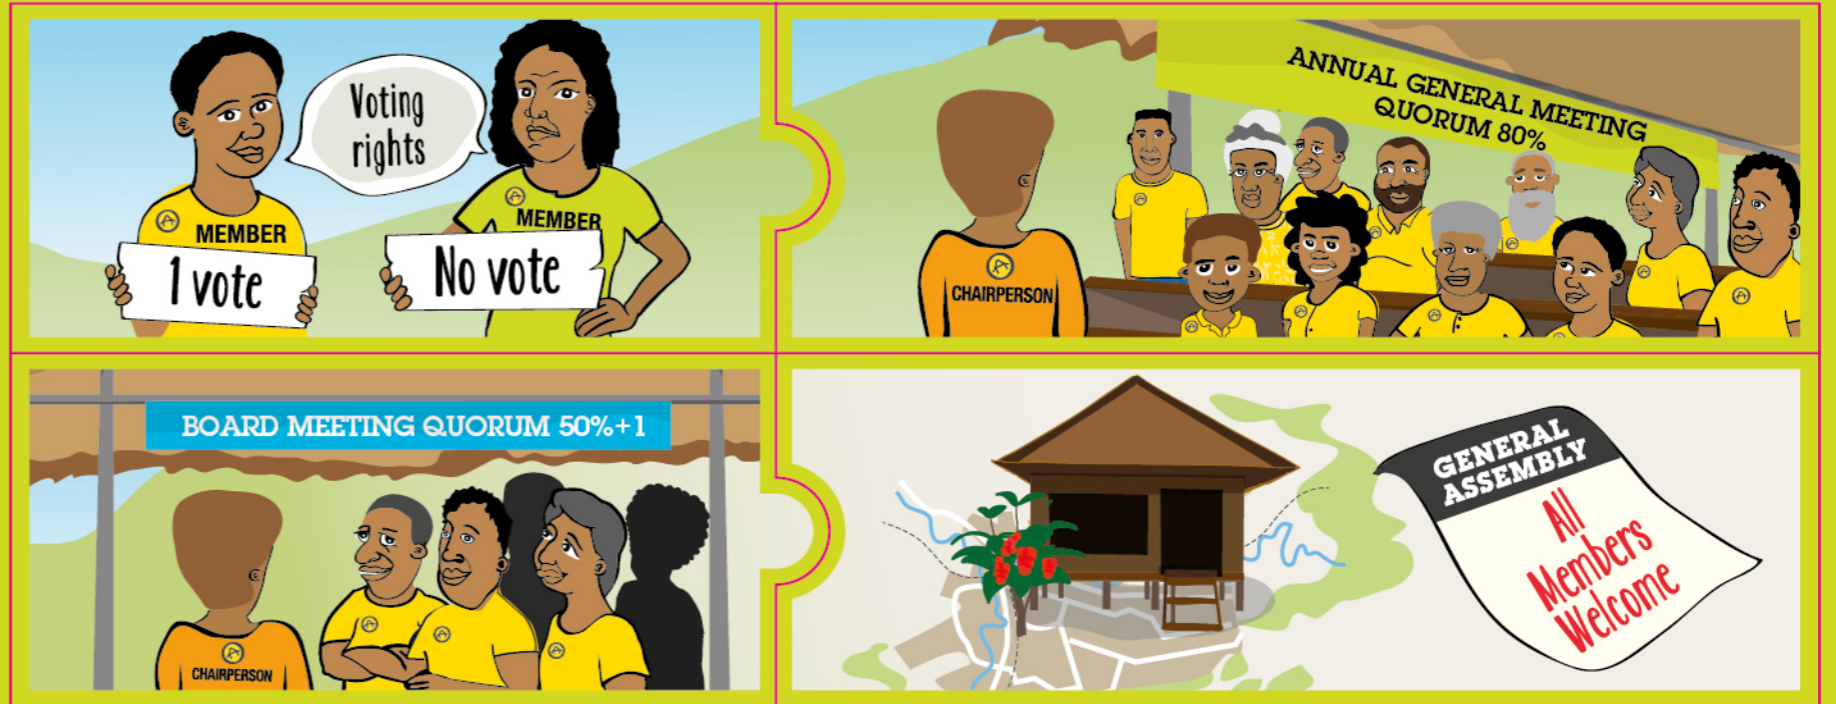

Good Governance – Constitution

Fairtrade encourages democratic, participatory and transparent producer organisations to facilitate the social and economic development of their members.

7

DECISION MAKING: Describes the voting rights of the organisation's members and its governance bodies, and the requirements to validly sit, deliberate and vote.

8

DISSOLUTION AND DISPUTES: Describes the steps to solve any disputes between the members and/or governance bodies. It also describes what is required in the case that dissolution is necessary.

